OBSERVATION:

At approximately 1110 HRS we received a radio call of a "415 Man" asleep in the restroom refusing to leave at 6328 Hollywood Blvd "Dos Burritos" restaurant. Upon our arrival we met with the P/R. He stated a man entered his restaurant and appeared to be drunk. He was walking to the rear of the business and entered the kitchen. P/R advised the suspect that they did not have a public restroom. The suspect ignored him and continued to the rear of the business and entered the employee restroom. The P/R again asked the suspect to leave, but the suspect sat on the floor and passed out. P/R stated he would prosecute and wanted him removed.

We entered the restroom and observed the suspect asleep on the floor next to the toilet. We immediately noted an odor consistent with an alcoholic beverage. We checked the suspect to make sure he was breathing, he was. We attempted several times to wake him by nudging him and raising our voices. He finally woke and immediately became belligerent. He physically threatened us by stating that he was going to kick our asses. The suspect stood up and placed his finger in my face while repeating his threat. Fearing for our safety we took him into custody for 41.24 (d) LAMC, Trespassing.

While attempting to take the suspect into custody he remained uncooperative and attempted to pull away as we placed the handcuffs on him. Officer Gordon grabbed his right arm, and I held his left as Kanagi placed handcuffs on him. At Hollywood Division the suspect apologized for his actions.
